

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

except in a single service paper package, as approved by the board of health or city health officer.

SEC. 12. No person, by himself or by his servant or agent, or as the servant or agent of another person, firm, or corporation, shall sell, deliver, or distribute any ice cream, sherbet, or other frozen delicacy in the police jurisdiction of the city of Mobile without first having obtained a permit to do so from the board of health or city health officer.

To obtain a permit: All persons desiring a permit to engage in the sale, delivery, or distribution of ice cream, sherbet, or other frozen delicacies, shall make application to the chief meat and milk inspector on a blank form prescribed by the board of health for that purpose.

Said application blank shall require among other things the following information, which the applicant shall state fully and explicitly:

1. The full name, nature of the business, and post-office address of the applicant.
2. The exact location of the place from which the applicant obtains his milk and cream, and if said applicant is not a producer of milk or cream, then the name of the person or persons from whom he obtains his milk or cream.
3. The manner in which the applicant intends to dispose of his product.
4. The applicant must agree to abide by the ordinances and rules regulating the manufacture, handling, and sale of ice cream in the city of Mobile, Ala., so far as they affect his business.

SEC. 13. Any person, firm, or corporation who violates any section of the foregoing ordinance shall, upon conviction in the recorder's court of the city of Mobile, be fined not more than $25 for each offense and may have his license and permit both revoked at the will of the board of health.

SEC. 14. This ordinance is to go into effect on July 15, 1912.

MONTCLAIR, N. J.

Nuisances—Certain Conditions Declared to be. (Ord. Bd. of H., June 25, 1912.)

Article 2, section 1, of an ordinance entitled "An ordinance establishing a sanitary code for the town of Montclair," passed April 9, 1907, is hereby amended by adding the following to the specific acts, conditions, and things therein enumerated and declared to constitute nuisances:

(k) The accumulation of manure, garbage, or anything whatever in which flies breed.

(l) The accumulation of manure or any form of filth that has not been so treated as to act as a repellant to flies. (The presence of fly eggs or maggots or flies will be cient evidence that such accumulation has not been properly treated.)

(m) Any stable that is not provided with a water-tight floor, which floor must be properly graded, trapped, and drained to a sewer, or cesspool if no sewer is available.

(n) Any privy vault that is not water-tight as well as fly-proof. (All existing privy vaults on streets in which there is no sewer must be changed within 30 days to comply with this regulation, or else a dry-earth system must be installed, in accordance with the rules of the board of health.)

(o) Any privy vault that is filled to within 1 foot of the top of the vault.

(p) Any privy that is not of substantial construction, that is not fly proof, that is not provided with a self-closing seat or seats, and that does not comply with all rules of the board of health.

(q) Any cart, tank, or barrel used in removing the contents of privy vaults or cesspools that is stored or cleaned within 300 feet of any dwelling.

(r) Any premises that are not provided with a suitable water-closet or privy vault for all persons working thereon.

(s) Any temporary privy vault the contents of which are not kept covered at all times.

Article 7, section 2, of the said ordinance is hereby amended by removing the clause "(fruit and vegetables excepted)."